PHILIPPINE ISLANDS BUDGET

(From Manila Files to February 27.)

MANILA, February 27.—The U. S. S. Saratoga, formerly the New York, flag-ship of the Asiatic fleet, is at Olongapo for extensive repairs, which will probably consume a month or six weeks. During the time the Saratoga is laid up, the flag of Admiral Murdock will fly from the Rainbow, the old flagship of the Philippine squadron which is lying at Shanghai with a part of the fleet.

Early in March Rear Admiral Reginald Fairfax Nicholson will relieve Rear Admiral Murdock of command of the Asiatic fleet, hosting his flag on the Rainbow until such time as the Saratoga is again ready for duty.

It is popularly believed among naval officers that the Asiatic fleet will soon be augmented by two or three of the armored cruisers now in the Pacific fleet which are now at Honolulu on their way to the East. At the present time there are but three vessels of any consequence in the Asiatic fleet, which in fighting strength has never amounted to much since 1906 when the last of the battleships which had been stationed in Asiatic waters since the war with Spain were ordered home.

British Gunboats Arrive.

Two British gunboats came into Manila harbor unexpectedly yesterday morning en route to Hongkong from their station at New Hebrides and the Fiji Islands, and although the military officials at Fort Santiago had no notice of their intended arrival the usual salute boomed from the cannons.

The visiting vessels of the English navy are H. M. S. Prometheus and H. M. S. Cambrian. The commanding officers of the gunboats called upon Consul General A. E. Wileman immediately upon coming ashore and, in company with Mr. Wileman, paid their official respects to Vice Governor Newton W. Gilbert and Major General J. Franklin Bell, commanding general of the Philippine division. Captain I. E. Drummond, R. N., is commanding officer of H. M. S. Prometheus, and Commander P. H. Warleigh, R. N., commands the Prometheus. The Cambrian is acting as convoy to the disabled Prometheus, which is going to Hongkong for repairs.

Trials for Bribery.

Patrolman A. Barnes was brought before Judge Crossfield, of the court of first instance, yesterday to answer to two charges of accepting bribes from opium joints. He was acquitted on the first charge and the trial of the second was continued until today.

Hope for Cavite.

The action of the Navy Department in setting aside an appropriation for the purpose of perfecting docking facilities for the submarine flotilla, consisting of four submarine craft, formerly known as the Adder, Shark, Porpoise and Moccasin, which are now stationed at the apparently abandoned naval station, is considered fairly conclusive evidence that the department has not yet reached a final decision on the question of the abandonment of Cavite.

Since the middle of last year there has been practically no activity at the station, all heavy machinery having been removed to Olongapo, where vessels of the fleet are sent for repairs, but in spite of this the station has been maintained and several of the principal departments continued in operation.

The personnel of the station has been reduced to a minimum, there being but a bare handful of American foremen and clerks left to take care of the small amount of general work of the station. These are nearly all employed in the general storekeeper's department, which is still maintained at Cavite, and is second in importance only to the machinery division.

Bar Association Protest.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon of the executive committee of the Philippine Bar Association in the office of Attorney C. A. DeWitt, which was attended by committee members (president of the association), DeWitt, Miranda, Fisher, Arnaz, New, Blanco, Rohde, Ferla and McGill, resolutions were adopted strongly condemning the action of the Governor General in appointing to the position of assistant attorney general former first assistant prosecuting attorney Salvador Zaragoza, brother-in-law of the secretary of finance and justice, who has not qualified under the laws of the Philippines by passing the bar examination prescribed by the Supreme Court; to the appointment of Fisher H. Nesmith to the position of assistant prosecuting attorney of the city of Manila, on the same grounds as the objection to the appointment of Mr. Zaragoza, and to the prosecuting attorney for the Hawaiian Island of Mario Guinaria.

Great Timber Franchise.

A twenty year exclusive license agreement to cut and gather timber, firewood and other forest products, and remove stone and earth from the public forests, exclusive of mangrove swamps on the island of Mindoro, will be awarded the highest bidder by the bureau of forestry. Acting Director William F. Sherfess has advertised for proposals for the sale of the license, which will be opened in Manila in the presence of attending bidders on April 13.

No bid will be considered by the bureau which does not provide for a minimum output of 60,000 cubic meters of timber in the first two years, 60,000 during the third year, 90,000 the fourth year, and 120,000 cubic meters during the fifth and each subsequent year of the license agreement. Preference will be given to the bidder offering to install the most complete and effective plant most promptly.

The license agreement calls for a capital of not less than $250,000 for inaugurating the work, with a modern sawmill, or sawmills, and logging equipment, to manufacture the required quantity of timber. The disposal of public lands in the district will not be affected by the lumbering operations.

The forest tract included in the privilege has an area of approximately 80,000 hectares on the north coast of Mindoro.

Big Silk Robbery.

Nine men of the British steamship Bendoran, now in port, are being held on the charge of stealing about $30,000 worth of silk goods from cargo consigned to J. Landahl, a local importer.

Saturday afternoon seven cases containing silk goods were brought to the custom house for inspection. The inspection revealed that a large portion of the goods supposed to have been contained in the cases was missing. The customs' secret service men were immediately put on the case.

Chief Ray noticed some finger prints on some of the remaining fabrics and sent for Mr. Jones of the bureau of constabulary, the Bertillon expert. The two went aboard the Bendoran, and the crew mustered, and one man identified by the finger marks.

He confessed to having had a hand in the deal and named eight others whom he said were also guilty. The men were taken in charge and turned over to the police.

Before the men were arrested, having got wind that the authorities were after them, they dumped most of the stolen goods overboard so that only about $600 worth was recovered.

Military Maneuvers.

CAMP McGRATH, February 24.—Unofficial news has been received here from an officer of the 8th Cavalry that the maneuvers will probably break up on the 28th of this month. If this report is correct, the 8th Cavalry will arrive here on or about the fifth of March, about ten days ahead of the scheduled time. Hardly will the officers and men become rested from the long march when they will have to begin the hot duties of the target season.

CABANATUAN, February 25.—Brigadier General Frederick Funston, who has so far acted as neutral adviser to the opposing forces in the Department of Luzon maneuvers being held in Pampanga and Bulacan provinces, has announced that he will take command of the southern army of infantry regiments and lead the force into the impending battle with the northern cavalry forces, which is due to take place tomorrow.

The cavalry army, under command of Colonel George K. Hunter, 7th Cavalry, will assume the defensive in this engagement, deploying so as to repulse if possible the infantry attack. The battle tomorrow will be the first general onslaught of the two great forces.

Both the northern and southern detachments are encamped at Cabanatuan today under an armistice for the purpose of drawing three days' rations from the advance supply depot before going into battle.

A Federal Investigation.

MANILA, February 25.—A Washington cablegram to the Cablegram-American says:

"I learned today on excellent authority that the House Committee on Insular Affairs would immediately begin an investigation of the Manila police scandals, calling to Washington all of the insular officials who have been connected with the investigation there, including the solicitor general and his assistants, and possibly many witnesses, both employees of the civil government and civilians who are familiar with the affairs of the department."

"This action is taken on the representation of Resident Commissioner Manuel Quezon, who has kept the committee posted on the developments of the investigation, and who evidently fears that the scandal may not receive adequate consideration at the hands of insular officials."

"To further verify the report I called upon several members of committee, who told me that it had been definitely decided to conduct the investigation, and that it would be independent of the findings of authorities in Manila."

GREAT DAYS, THESE.

Honoluluans are passing through climate that brings thousands of people from the mainland to her island shores. Down at Haleiwa there is a different and better grade and the cuisine is far and away above the average. There is a fine beach for bathers and the sea is always just right. Not too far away are the pineapple plantations where the fruit is glistening like gold in the sunlight and nearer to the hotel is a great sugar plantation. Haleiwa is a resort head and shoulders above any other in the islands. An auto in the rent service is on the ground. Post Office Haleiwa.
